

British Cattle Veterinary Association Practice Membership

About BCVA

The British Cattle Veterinary Association was established in 1967 and is the cattle specialist division of the British Veterinary Association.

BCVA works with many different organisations and has representation on various groups including CHeCs, National Beef Association, Milk Quality Forum, Farm Animal Welfare Council, as well as many Defra working groups.

BCVA run a range of courses throughout the year on various topics relating to cattle health. BCVA's Annual Congress is a mixture of scientific and practical papers given by speakers from the UK and abroad. Other courses cover such issues as Health Planning, Mastitis, Nutrition, Lameness, Fertility and training for recent graduates.
